Subject: angry call of a few minutes ago
Greg,

I write only to make a record of an angry call I received a few minutes ago from a woman who said she heard of the debate yesterday but did not attend. She did not identify herself.

We talked about 10 minutes, in the course of which she said I was racist against white people, am finished, and should be punished for my comments on the subject of immigration.

I asked her to review my detailed views on the subject at <http://ellisboal.org/pages/anti-racism.shtml> and to review the debate itself which will be uploaded shortly as a podcast at http://www.wmktthetalkstation.com/podcast/index.php?p=archive&cat=greg_marshall . She said she didn't need to.

Most of the conversation consisted of her stating her opinions and then asking my opinion. She interrupted several times as I tried to answer. She wanted short answers, not the elaborate answers I tried to give her. She apologized for having a loud voice.

I asked which candidate she supported. She said she was waiting to decide, but believes Americans had been betrayed on this issue by both Obama and Bush.

I am copying this to the contact emails shown on the websites of Glenn Wilson and Keith Shelton. The other candidates' websites don't have contact emails.
